

ANDREW CRAIGIE CIRCLE RECOGNITION

To recognize Industry Partners providing support for the 2019 Joint Federal Pharmacy Seminar (JFPS 2019) beyond the Platinum Level*, the American Pharmacists Association (APhA), the official education provider and meeting manager of JFPS 2019, has created an additional level of support—the Andrew Craigie Circle.

The Andrew Craigie Circle is named in honor of the first Apothecary General of the Revolutionary War and will recognize industry partners whose total contribution to JFPS 2019 exceed or equal $20,000.

Total support includes funds provided for exhibiting, educational programs, and other official JFPS sponsored events.

Industry Partners at the Andrew Craigie Circle level will enjoy the following benefits beyond those offered at the Platinum Level:

- ★ Unlimited complimentary exhibitor registration badges to JFPS 2019.
- ★ Exclusive invitation to the Federal Pharmacy Leadership Reception.
- ★ Opportunity to interact with key leadership and policy advocates of APhA, including the APhA Government Affairs division.
- ★ Special recognition at the JFPS 2019 Opening General Session and appropriate signage at the exhibit and throughout the meeting.

For additional information please contact:

Stacia Spridgen, PharmD
Director, Federal Pharmacy Programs
American Pharmacists Association
202-429-7594
sspridgen@aphanet.org

*The JFPS 2019 Exhibitor Prospectus provides complete information regarding the support levels and is available at www.jfpsinfo.org.